

POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Notice, dated 24th February 1898.

A reward of Rs. 50 is offered by Mr. C. V. D. Hay, Assistant Commissioner, Salt and Abkari Department, Trichinopoly, for the recovery of a rifle lost by him while he was travelling in a jatka from Kollegal to Maddur on the 2nd February 1898.

Description of the Rifle.

A double-barrelled central fire rifle by Tolly of Birmingham. On the plate under right hammer are the words "five drams" or "burns five drams powder." The back folding flap of the back sight is slightly dented at one end. The steel catch under the barrel which fixes the latter to the stock has recently been soldered and the rifle was in a long Sambar leather bag with leather strap and buckle at the heel.

It appears from Mr. Hay's report that the rifle could not have fallen from the jatka on the way. On his arrival at Maddur, he got into the train ordering his servant to bring his things and saw the rifle missing only after the train left the station. The jatka was reported to have been driven from Kollegal by a Muhammadan, and, from the 3rd mile from Maddur, by a Hindu.

The police are directed to search for the missing rifle and to communicate any information regarding it to the Office of the Inspector General of Police at Bangalore.

K. CHANDY, for Insp. Genl. of Police.
